North-East

Research Conclave

Research and Development is one of the foundational pillars for holistic growth of the country specially for a fast-developing nation like India. The dynamicity of our nation is a collaborative effort of all the states. However, in recent years the North Eastern states are coming to the limelight for excellent laurels in innovation and collaborations in the field of science & technology. The North-Eastern Region (NER) comprising the Seven Sister States along with its only brother Sikkim, is one of the most decorated jewels in the crown of the Nation. Apart from being one of the most strategically important regions of the country, the region hosts the reservoir of extensive natural resources coupled with its exotic beauty. It presents itself as one of the uncharted horizons full of enchanting opportunities and sturdy potential, but simultaneously offers a plethora of unique challenges.

Overcoming the challenges is of utmost priority for exponential developmental growth of this region for which many educational and research organizations, have been engaged in cutting-edge research. Therefore, there is an urgent need to bring all the research, innovation ideas and most importantly, the human resource onto a common platform.

Indian Institute of Technology Guwahati, since its inception, has steadily grown to be the ambassador of Research and Development in North-Eastern India. The Institute is playing the key role in providing leadership in translational research and making the North East to achieve a prominent position in the global platform.

As India marks 75 years of independence and celebrates Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, Indian Institute of Technology Guwahati proposes to organize "The North-East Research Conclave" (NERC).

The Mission of the proposed Conclave is:

1. To showcase the best R&D activities from all the educational and research institutions across the states of North-East India.
2. To create a common interface for interaction of academia and industry in North-East India.
3. To create an environment, conducive to development of local indigenous technologies and innovations, creating the scope and laying the foundation for entrepreneurship.
4. To agglomerate a vast talent pool, for promotion of Translational Research.
5. To help the country achieve the deliverables of the Sustainable Development Goals.

The "The North-East Research Conclave" is the call of the hour and IIT Guwahati is committed to successfully organize the event to boost the R&D activities in North-East India, which is pivotal for its growth in the future.
